

Requiring "interoperability" in competing VRS device standards is not only proper, its prudent, in case you forgot the "Baudot vs Ascii" wars and problematic development for new technology applications on behalf of Deaf Americans. We do not want a repeat of that. Please use your FCC clout to have Sorenson comply with interoperability standards to the long term compatibility benefit of Deaf Americans. Thank you.